Co-operation Means Good Service

Perfect co-operation between the calling party, the operator and the person called, means good telephone service.

ALWAYS look first in the telephone book to make sure of the number.

SPEAK slowly and distinctly, directly into the transmitter, with lips about half an inch from the mouthpiece.

ANSWER your telephone promptly and pleasantly.

ANNOUNCE your name or the name of your department at once. Don't say "Hello."

To place a Station-to-Station call ask for Long Distance, then give the operator the number you wish to call, or if not known, the name or address under which the telephone is listed.

Use Station-to-Station Service it is Quicker and Cheaper.

ON a five minute conversation by Long Distance 32 miles or less, you may save from 43% to 60% by using Station-to-Station instead of Person-to-Person Service.

The initial talking period on short haul Station-to-Station talks is 5 minutes, and on Person-to-Person calls, 3 minutes, with an extra charge for additional time used.

Why not take advantage of the longer initial talking period and lower rate by using Station-to-Station service whenever possible on short haul talks?

DO NOT Permit Attachments To Your Telephone

PERSISTENT efforts are being made to induce our subscribers to purchase devices to be attached, for various purposes, to the transmitters of telephones.

We wish to remind our subscribers that the instruments on their premises are the property of the Company and that foreign attachments are not permitted. Such attachments invariably impair transmission of speech and the Company's inspectors have instructions to remove them when visiting subscribers' premises.

The instruments are necessarily very sensitive and have been designed to produce the best results as they are.

In the interest of the service we request our subscribers to refrain from allowing such attachments to be made.

DO NOT Permit Attachments To Your Telephone

PERSISTENT efforts are being made to induce our subscribers to purchase devices to be attached, for various purposes, to the transmitters of telephones.

We wish to remind our subscribers that the instruments on their premises are the property of the Company and that foreign attachments are not permitted. Such attachments invariably impair transmission of speech and the Company's inspectors have instructions to remove them when visiting subscribers' premises.

The instruments are necessarily very sensitive and have been designed to produce the best results as they are.

In the interest of the service we request our subscribers to refrain from allowing such attachments to be made.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CO. OF CANADA

Help keep up the quality of your service by aiding the operator:—

Always answer your telephone promptly.

Don't say "Hello." Answer with your name or the name of your company.

Always consult the telephone directory before calling a number.

Maintain the same courtesy and consideration in a telephone conversation that you would with the other party face to face.

Each new subscriber adds to the value of YOUR telephone
